

The Daily Courant.

Monday, May 3. 1708.

Vienna, April 25.

SATURDAY last, being the Birth-day of the Empress-Consort, was Celebrated by the Court with great Splendour: Her Majesty was congratulated on the Occasion by all the Ladies, Ministers, and Men of Quality, who appear'd in most Rich and Magnificent Habits; And in the Evening was perform'd an Opera made on purpose for the Day, and intitled the Birth of Juno. The same Day in the Afternoon, the Rector Magnificus of this famous University of Vienna, M. Anthon Joseph Oetel, Doctor of Laws, Knight, Provincial of the Kingdom of Hungary, Aulick Counsellor of War, and Auditor General of War, accompany'd by the Deans of the four Faculties, in Habits of Ceremony, and by the Doctors and Fellows of the University, went publickly to the Palace, to take Leave of the Bracis of Wolfenbuttel, Bride of King Charles III. and with her a good Voyage.

Monday at Noon the Emperour and Empress, with the Royal Bride, went to the pleasant Imperial Seat of Schoonborn a League from hence, and din'd there: In the Afternoon the Empress-Dowager and the Archduchesses went thither: In the Evening the Imperial Family, accompany'd by the whole Court, went from Schoonborn to the Neighbouring Church of our Lady of Jezing; and before the High Altar the Marriage Ceremony was celebrated: The Emperor represented the Person of the Catholick King; and his Imperial Majesty and the Royal Bride were attir'd in very costly and Magnificent Robes. The Sacred Service was perform'd by the Cardinal Prince of Saxe-Zeys, assisted by 4 other Prelats, in the Presence of the most August Family, of Divers Princes, and of as many of the Principal Nobility as so small a Church could contain, all in most Splendid Habits: An infinite Concourse of People, that stood throng'd together without the Church, making zealous Acclamations, and wishing Celestial Blessings with all Human Happiness to the Royal Pair. The Matrimonial Office being ended, Te Deum was solemnly sung to Musick, with a tripple Salvo of Musquers by Companies of Soldiers drawn up in the Park of Schoonborn adjoining to the Church, and of 34 Pieces of Cannon drawn out on an adjacent Plain. In the Evening her Royal Majesty went to the Castle of Haderstorff a League beyond the Church, and lay there that Night; the Emperour and Empress return'd to the Palace of Schoonborn; and the Empress-Dowager with the Archduchesses her Daughters to this City. Yesterday the whole Imperial Family went to Haderstorff, where they were magnificently treated by her Royal Majesty: After which they all made her their parting Compliments, and with Expressions of the greatest Tenderness, not without Tears, bid her a long Adieu.

Yesterday went from hence likewise to Haderstorff his Excellency the Count of Abensperg and Traun, Councillor of State, Knight of the Golden Flece, accompanied by several Deputies of the States of this Country with some of their Inferiour Officers; and being admitted to her Royal Majesty of Spain, Elizabeth Christina born Dutchess of Brunswick-Wolfenbuttel, his Excellency, as Marshal of this Archduchy of Austria, made a congratulatory Speech to her Majesty in the Name of the 4 States of the said Archduchy, and gave her a Nuptial Present; after which they had all the Honour to kiss her Hand.

Last Night Her Royal Majesty began her Journey for Italy.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated May 5.

Vienna, April 21. A new Service of Plate weighing about 4000 Mark, is pack'd up with the Baggage of the Royal Bride of Spain, for King

Charles; he having been oblig'd in the Siege of Barcelona to melt down all his Plate, and make Money of it to supply his Necessities at that Juncture.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated May 1.

Milan, April 17. We expect here in a few Days from Naples 5 State-Prisoners, viz. the Duke of Escalona, the Prince de Castiglione, the Prince de Cellamare, the Prince de Bisaccia, and Don Oratio Capola: Order is come hither for their being close confin'd, and for barring them all Intercourse and Communication, in Reprisal for the Duke of Anjou's treating the Catalonian and Arragonian Lords of King Charles's Party that have been taken in the same rigorous Manner. The first of the forementioned Prisoners is to be put into the Castle of Pizzighione, the 2d into the Donjon of our Citadel, and the other 3 into the Fort of Fuentes.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated May 4.

Milan, April 20. The Count de Colmenero Governour of our Citadel, who under the late Government was engag'd in a strict Friendship with the Duke d'Escalona, is extremely perplex'd about the rigorous Treatment which the Emperour and King Charles have commanded to be exercis'd against that Duke and the other State-Prisoners expected here from Naples. Our last Advices from Genoa, tell us the Regency of that Republick have already nominated 12 Gentlemen to receive on their Frontier and compliment on their Part the new Queen of Spain. The Republick of Venice will cause her to be met and complimented at Verona.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated May 4.

Venice, April 21. Some Advices from Lombardy, tell us the Imperialists are sending into the Modeneze a great Quantity of Provisions, with heavy Artillery, and Stores of War; and that those Preparations have given Umbrage to the Legate of Ferrara, and occasion'd a Rumour, that the Imperialists design to dispossess the Pope of the City of Ferrara, and put it into the Hands of the Duke of Modena as the right Owner. Preparations are making in the Milaneze for the Reception of the Royal Consort of King Charles III, in her way to imbarck at Genoa or Final for Barcelona: She will be receiv'd at Brescia by 12 Deputies of the State of Milan, who are to meet her with the Character of Ambassadors, viz. the Counts Melzi, Visconti, Borromeo, and Archinto; the Marquisses Tirulzi, Fiorenza, Rosalas, and Fagnano; the Counts Cigogna, Capitanai, Joseph Visconti, and Vitaliano Briglia.

Turin, April 13. The Mountains are so thick cover'd with Snow, and the Weather is so cold, that 'tis not likely the Troops on both sides can take the Field so soon as has been talk'd. Yesterday a printed Notification in the Name of our Duke, was publickly affix'd, importing that those who were desirous to furnish Bedding and other Necessaries to the Field-Hospitals, should give in their Proposals by the 16th, that an Agreement might be made with the Person who would undertake to do that Service cheapest. Two Regiments of Foot are sent from hence to Aoste, to reinforce the Troops already there, because the Enemy threaten the Pass of Eruille which separates Aoste from Savoy; but that Pass is so well secur'd, that 'tis not believ'd it can be lost without Treachery.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated May 5.

Turin, April 18. The 16th our Duke sent Orders to all the Collonels of his Regiments of Foot, to augment every Company with 10 Men; and the Levies for that purpose are to be made with all Expedition by the Towns and Villages of Piemont proportionably to their Number of Inhabitants. A great Quantity of Biscuit is baking for the Use of the Army, which 'tis not doubred will pass the Mountains to fall into the Enemy's Country. His Royal

Royal Highness has caus'd a Service of Plate of Admirable Workmanship, weighing 96000 Ounces, to be sent to Day (pack'd up in 4 Chests) to Genoa, thence to be carry'd to Naples, for a Present to Count Thauo, in acknowledgment of his great Services in the Defence of this City.

From the Amst. and Leid. Gaz. dated May 4.

Turin, April 18. The Prince of Piemont and the Prince of Aoste, both Sons of the Duke of Savoy, going abroad tother Day in a Coach to take the Air, the Horses being unruly, and the Coachman wanting Strength to rein them in, ran clear away: But the two Princes were sav'd from the Danger that threaten'd them by the Baron de Vallais one of their Equerries, who pricking forwards got before the Coach Horses to stop them, and turning on a sudden upon them the Coach Poll beat his Horse and him to the Ground: This stop'd the Coach, but the Baron had his Thigh broke, and was much bruised besides. The Duke of Savoy being inform'd of the Accident, immediately made the Baron a Visit, gave him Thanks for the good Service he had done, and bid him have no other Concern upon his Spirits than to get himself cur'd, promising he would take Care of his Fortune.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated May 1.

Born, April 22. We have a Report here, that the French think themselves so much concern'd to hinder the Duke of Savoy from breaking into Provence, that besides the great Number of Peasants who are made to labour hard in throwing up a Line to secure the Passage of the Var, they have likewise set 5000 Women to Work.
